AWARD

(Delivered on this the 12th day of the month of January of the year 2024)

By Order dated 04-09-2015, bearing reference No. 28/45/2015-Lab/845, the Government of Goa in exercise of powers conferred by Section 10(1)(d) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (for short 'The Act'), has referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication:-

"(1) Whether the action of the Management of M/s GKB Hi-Tech Lenses Private Limited, 50, Tivim Industrial Estate, Karaswada, Mapusa, Goa, in refusing employment to Shri Yeshwant Kudav, Shri Sanjay Shetye, Shri Santosh Gawas and Shri Dinesh Tulaskar, Junior Operators with effect from 11-3-2015, is legal and justified?

(2) If not, what relief each of the workmen are entitled to?"

2. It came to be registered as reference No. IT/02/2016 and notices were issued to the Parties.

3. The Workmen (Party I) have filed their Statement of Claim. The Employer (Party II) has filed its Written Statement. The Workmen (Party I) have filed their Rejoinder to the Written Statement.

4. The case of the Workmen (Party I) in their Statement of Claim is that the workmen unionized themselves under the "Goa Trade and Commercial Workers' Union". That thereafter, the Employer (Party II) started harassing and victimizing the members of the Union. Shri Yeshwant Kudav, Shri Sanjay Shetye, Shri Santosh Gawas and Shri Dinesh Tulaskar were working as Junior Operators for the Employer (Party II). That they were members of the Union. That on 11-03-2015, these workmen were not allowed to punch their Attendance Cards by the General Manager-HR. That, the General Manager-HR told these workmen that their services stood terminated. That, the Workmen (Party I) raised an industrial dispute before the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Mapusa.

That the conciliation proceedings ended in failure. Therefore, it is prayed that the refusal of employment of Shri Yeshwant Kudav, Shri Sanjay Shetye, Shri Santosh Gawas and Shri Dinesh Tulaskar with effect from 11-03-2015 be held to be illegal, unjustified and bad-in-law. That, they be reinstated back in service with full back wages and continuity in service at the Employer's Factory at Karaswada, Mapusa-Goa.

5. The case of the Employer (Party II) is that by letters of promotion dated 10-03-2015, Shri Yeshwant Kudav, Shri Sanjay Shetye, Shri Santosh Gawas and Shri Dinesh Tulaskar were promoted as "Supervisors Production" and were transferred to Cochin, Hyderabad, Chennai and Guwahati respectively with effect from 24-03-2015. That, Party I are not workmen. That, they did not report to duty at the places to which they were transferred. That, Yeshwant Kudav has resigned by letter dated 10-06-2016. That the Employer/Party II has accepted the resignation and has paid him Rs. 13,132/- by way of Cheque as full and final settlement. That, show-cause notices dated 06-04-2015 and 09-04-2015 were issued to the other three workmen for non-compliance with promotion and posting orders. That, by letter dated 13-04-2015, these three workers were informed that they would not be paid from 24-03-2015 on account of "no work, no pay". It is denied that the Employer/Party II harassed and victimized the unionized workmen. It is denied that the Party I are presently unemployed. Therefore, it is prayed that the prayers of the Party I be rejected.

6. In their Rejoinder to the Written Statement, the Workmen/Party I have denied that by letters dated 10-03-2015, Shri Yeshwant Kudav, Shri Sanjay Shetye, Shri Santosh Gawas and Shri Dinesh Tulaskar were promoted as Supervisors-Production. That they had not accepted such letters of promotion. That the question of them being transferred to Cochin, Hyderabad, Chennai and Guwahati respectively does not arise. It is denied that Yeshwant Kudav submitted his resignation and accepted Rs. 13,132/- by way of Cheque as his full and final settlement. It is denied that for the other three workmen, the Employer/Party II had issued notices for non-compliance of posting and promotion orders. Therefore, it is prayed that the reliefs prayed for in the Statement of Claim be granted.

7. During the course of proceeding, all Parties except Yeshwant Kudav filed the terms of settlement. A Part Award dated 30-11-2023 was passed in disposing of the disputes between all the Parties except Yeshwant Kudav and Party II.

8. The dispute between Yeshwant Kudav and Party II was put to trial.

9. The following issues were framed and my findings thereon are as follows:

Issue No.	Issues	Findings
1	2	3
1.	Whether the Party I proves that they are 'workmen' as defined under Section 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947?	In the negative.
2.	Whether the Party I proves that the action of Party II in refusing their employment w.e.f. 11-03-2015 is illegal and unjustified?	In the negative.
3.	Whether the Party I proves that they are entitled to reinstatement in services with full back wages and continuity in services with all other consequential benefits?	In the negative.
4.	What Relief?/What Order?	As per the final order.

REASONS

10. Issue No. 1, 2 and 3: The case of Yeshwant Kudav is that he is a 'workman'. It is his case that he was refused employment w.e.f. 11-03-2015 in an illegal and unjustified manner. That, he is entitled to reinstatement with continuity in service, full back wages and with all other consequential benefits.

11. Yeshwant Kudav and Party II have not adduced any evidence.

12. Therefore, Yeshwant Kudav has failed to prove that he is a 'workman'. He has failed to prove that the action of Party II in refusing him employment w.e.f. 11-03-2015 is illegal and unjustified. Yeshwant Kudav has also failed to prove that he is entitled to reinstatement in service, with continuity of service, full back wages and other consequential benefits.

13. As seen above, all other workmen have settled their dispute with Party II.

14. For the reasons stated above, I hold issues No. 1, 2 and 3 in the negative.

Hence, I pass the following:-

ORDER

- (i) The claim of Yeshwant Kudav is disallowed.
- (ii) No orders as to cost.
- (iii) Inform the Government accordingly.

AWARD

(Delivered on this the 9th day of the month of January of the year 2024)

By order dated 17-03-2017, bearing No. 28/05/
/2017-LAB/141, the Government of Goa in exercise of powers conferred by Section 10(1)(d) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 has referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication:-

- “(1) Whether S/Shri Yatin Chodenkar, Jose Francisco Mories, Savio Dias, Vincent Miranda, Ms. Candida D'Costa and Ms. Diana Almeida, are workmen defined under Section 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act 14 of 1947)?
- (2) If answer to the issue No. (1) is in the affirmative, then, whether the action of the management of M/s Majorda Beach Resort, Majorda, Salcete, Goa, in terminating the services of the above mentioned workmen with effect from 07-06-2016, is legal and justified?
- (3) If the answer to the issue No. (2) is in the negative, then, what relief the workmen are entitled to?”

2. Upon receipt of the reference it was registered as Reference No. IT/05/2017 and notices were served on the Parties.

3. The Workmen/Party I filed their Statement of Claim. The Employer/Party II filed its Written Statement. The Workmen/Party I filed their Rejoinder.

4. During the course of proceedings, 4 workmen namely Mr. Jose Francisco Moraes, Mr. Savio Dias, Ms. Candida D'Costa and Ms. Diana Almeida and Party II filed Consent Terms dated 29-07-2019 (Exh. 33 Colly). An Award (Part) dated 13-08-2019 was made in terms of the Consent Terms.

5. Yatin Chodnekhar and Vincent Miranda were not Parties to the consent terms. They proceeded to contest the case. We have to decide the dispute between Yatin Chodnekhar and Vincent Miranda and Party II.

6. The case of Party I in the Statement of Claim is that Party II appointed Yatin Chodnekhar by Appointment Letter dated 01-04-1985 as an Account Assistant. That he had to physically make Purchase General Vouchers, physically write general ledgers, bank reconciliation, physically make statutory payments and do other clerical works of accounts.

7. That, Party II appointed Vincent Miranda as an Assistant Steward by Letter of Appointment dated 01-01-1991. That it is a physical and technical work. That he was physically serving the guests and the restaurant. That, he was physically setting buffets, setting tables in the Conference Hall and doing other services as per the orders of the F & B Manager. That Vincent Miranda was the President of the Union. That, to disable him from being the Union's President, he was re-designated as Manager. That he was doing the same work as before. That, he was not authorized to take any decisions on behalf of Party II. That he was not having any supervisory or managerial powers. That, Vincent Miranda was not having powers to sanction the leave of any workman. That his work was of a skilled and technical nature.

8. That on 07-06-2016, Party II terminated the services of the abovementioned workmen by an unsigned Letter of Termination. That after the termination of Party I, the affairs of all other workmen were settled by paying 55 days' wages per year as ex-gratia, in addition to retrenchment compensation, gratuity etc.

9. That the workmen/Party I made a representation dated 06-07-2016 stating that their termination was illegal, unjustified and bad in law. It was further stated in the representation that there was no enquiry against them and no retrenchment compensation was paid. That charge-sheet was also not issued. That the Employer/Party II has not complied with the provisions of Sections 25F, 25H and 25G of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. That more than 200 workers are employed by Party II and Chapter VB of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 is applicable. That Party II has not obtained permission for retrenchment under Section 25N of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

10. The Workmen/Party I states that in the month of June, 2016, they joined a Union, namely, Gomantak Mazdoor Sangh and the dispute of illegal termination was raised before the Deputy Labour Commissioner, Margao. That, conciliation proceedings ended in failure due to the adamant attitude of the Employer/Party II. Therefore, it is prayed that it be declared that Party I are workmen as defined under Section 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. That it be declared that the termination of Party I is illegal, improper and unjustified. That the Employer/Party II be directed to pay the workmen/Party I ex-gratia at the rate of 55 days pay per year of service in addition to retrenchment compensation and other legal dues and cost and any other relief.

11. Party II has stated in its Written Statement that Mr. Yatin Chodnekar was initially appointed as an Account Assistant in the year 1984. That in January, 1988, he was promoted to the post of Accounts Supervisor. That in June, 1989, he was designated as Junior Accountant in the Executive Cadre. That, in April, 1997, he was promoted as Assistant Manager-Accounts. That, thereafter, he was promoted as Dy. Manager-Accounts. That, when his services were terminated, he was working as Dy. Manager-Accounts. It is denied that Yatin Chodnekar was physically making purchase general vouchers, physically writing general ledgers, bank reconciliation and physically making statutory payments and other clerical work of accounts. That he was the authorized signatory of the Company and was signing cheques, vouchers, petrol vouchers etc. That he was authorizing the purchase general vouchers which were punched by the accounts staff. That once the purchase general vouchers and bank vouchers are punched in the computer system, it automatically generates the general ledger and there is no need of writing the general ledger separately. That bank reconciliation is a supervisory/managerial job. That, statutory payments are done online and only executives are given access to the username and password to do the payments.

12. That, Yatin Chodnekar being an Executive/Manager was covered under the superannuation scheme and was receiving other benefits which are otherwise applicable to Executives/Managers. That, he was having his meals at the Executive dining room and was also having extras through refreshment slips. That, he was getting the benefits of Group Mediclaim which was given only to Executives. That, he was paid Leave Travel Allowance as an executive. That he used to sign Store Requisitions and sanction advances of staff. That he used to claim travel benefits, domiciliary medical reimbursement at the executive level. That, he was granting leave of staff in the capacity of Department Sectional Head.

13. Party II states that Mr. Vincent Miranda joined Majorda Beach Resort as a Training Apprenticeship on 01-02-1990. That on 01-01-1991, he was appointed as Assistant Steward. That, his services were confirmed on 01-04-1991. That, on 24-11-1995, he was promoted as Steward. That, on 24-11-2005, he was promoted as a Asst. Restaurant Manager in the Executive Cadre. That on 14-10-2008, he was promoted as Restaurant Manager.

14. That, Vincent Miranda was covered under the superannuation scheme applicable to the executives. That he was having the facility to have meals in the executive dining room and also having extras through refreshment slips. That he was also having the benefits of Group Mediclaim and Leave Travel Allowance available to the Executives.

15. It is denied that Vincent Miranda was physically making service to the guests or physically setting buffets or setting tables in the Conference Hall or providing service as per order of the F & B Manager. It is submitted that as a Restaurant Manager, his duty was only to supervise and brief his subordinate staff in regard to Banquets and arrangements. That, Vincent Miranda used to sign store requisitions. That he was recommending/ /sanctioning leave of the staff working under his control and supervision. That he used to put remarks on the Leave Cards of the staff. It is denied that Vincent Miranda was re-designated as Manager to prevent him from being the president of the Union.

16. That, because Mr. Vincent Miranda was an Executive/Manager, he was paid two months' notice pay, leave salary, ex-gratia for two months for the years 2015-16 and 2016-17. That, he was also paid a gratuity amount. That, he was also paid the benefits under the superannuation scheme.

17. That, M/s Majorda Beach Resorts has been running under loss for the past several years. That, Party II has closed the activities of the Hotel. That, the existing management has no intention of restarting the activities of the hotel. That, if at all the activities of the hotel are to be restarted, it would be managed by a reputed/international Company. Therefore, Party I is not entitled to any relief.

18. Party I have filed their Rejoinder. It is denied that the establishment was continuously running under loss for the past several years. It is denied that Party I were working in managerial category and were getting the benefits of the managerial categories. It is denied that they were sanctioning/recommending the leave of their subordinate staff. It is denied that they were getting additional facilities given only to executive/administrative and managerial personnel. It is stated that the Superannuation Benefit Scheme has nothing to do with the termination of services of Party I. That, meals in executive dining room, extras through refreshment slips and group mediclaim facility has nothing to do with the termination of services of Party I. That, the actions of Party II are malafide, illegal and unjustified and bad in law.

19. Heard arguments. The Union Representative Mr. P Gaonkar and the Learned Advocate for Party II, Mr. M. S. Bandodkar have filed their written arguments.

20. The following issues were framed by this Tribunal and my findings thereon are as follows:-

Issue No.	Issues	Findings
1	2	3
1.	Whether the Party I proves that they are the workmen as defined under Section 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947?	In the negative.
2.	Whether the Party I proves that the action of the Party II in terminating their services w.e.f. 07-06-2016 is illegal and unjustified?	In the negative
3.	What relief? What Order?	As per final order.

REASONS

21. Issue No. 1: The case of Party I is that they are workmen as defined under Section 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

22. Section 2 (s) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 reads as follows:-

Section 2(s): "workman" means any person (including an apprentice) employed in any industry to do any manual, unskilled, skilled, technical, operational, clerical or supervisory work for hire or reward, whether the terms of employment be express or implied, and for the purpose of any proceeding under this Act in relation to an industrial dispute, includes any such person who has been dismissed, discharged or retrenched in connection with, or as a consequence of, that dispute, or whose dismissal, discharge or retrenchment has led to that dispute, but does not include any such person—

- (i) Who is subject to the Air Force Act, 1950 (45 of 1950), or the Army Act, 1950 (46 of 1950), or the Navy Act, 1957 (62 of 1957); or
- (ii) Who is employed in the police service or as an officer or other employee of a prison, or
- (iii) Who is employed mainly in a managerial or administrative capacity, or
- (iv) Who being employed in a supervisory capacity, draws wages exceeding (ten thousand rupees) per mensem or exercises, either by the nature of the duties attached to the office or by reason of the powers vested in him, functions mainly of a managerial nature.

23. Party I has examined Shri Yatin Prabhu Chodnekar as Witness 1 for Party I.

24. Party II has examined Mrs. Meena Vaswani as Witness 1 for Party II. She is the Corporate Financial Controller of Party II.

25. Yatin Prabhu Chodnekar (Witness 1 for Party I) deposes that Party II had appointed him as Accounts Assistant by letter dated 01-04-1985. He deposes that his duties at the relevant time were as follows:-

- i. Physically preparing purchase vouchers. These purchase vouchers are prepared on a computer software which requires an unique username and password, which was given to him by the Party II. The account software was called ISG (Interface System Generated), all the records which would show that he had prepared the purchase vouchers using the software which are only available with the management.
- ii. Physically writing general ledgers.
- iii. Bank reconciliation, visiting banks for deposits and withdrawal in absence of the general cashier.
- iv. Physically making statutory payments and other clerical work of accounts.
- v. Making journal entries for the purpose of accounting.

- vi. The Chief Accountant Mr. A. Krishna was the authorized signatory for all the bills. Only in his absence he used to sign on his instruction.
- vii. Arranging money from the cashier for payment of VAT.
- viii. Payment of petty cash after requisitioning the same from the general cashier on a daily basis.
- ix. Every month he had to physically go to every department to check crockery, cutlery and glassware and to maintain the record of such inventory.
- x. The hotel had a contract for car service which petrol bills he used to maintain monthly.
- xi. He used to also check the requisition for the stores.

26. Yatin Prabhu Chodnekar (Witness 1 for Party I) deposes that he was not authorized to take any decision on behalf of the management. He deposes that he was not involved in the administration and did not have supervisory or managerial powers. He deposes that the Chief Accountant Mr. A. Krishnan used to grant the leave applications. He deposes that in the absence of A. Krishnan, he used to merely endorse the leave applications provided he had instructions from A. Krishnan. He deposes that all leave applications had to be made to the H.O.D. and signed by the HOD. He deposes that although he was designated as Deputy Accounts Manager, his duties were of clerical nature. He deposes that he was not given any job description of nature of work to be carried out by the management in writing. He deposes that he did not supervise any employee of the hotel at any point of time. He deposes that he was engaged in skilled and clerical work and as such he was a 'workman'.

27. Mrs. Meena Vaswani (Witness 1 for Party II) deposes that the book of accounts are computer generated i.e. Purchase Journal Vouchers, Purchase Day Book, Cash Book, Bank Book, Trial Balance, General Ledger Reports and Sales Reports. She deposes that only Petty Cash Vouchers were being maintained by hand. She deposes that the clerical jobs were done by the Accounts Assistants. She deposes that there was no question of writing General Ledger, Bank Reconciliation etc. She deposes that Yatin Chodnekar was working as Dy. Manager-Accounts when he was terminated. She deposes that his was a managerial, supervisory and administrative job on a monthly salary of Rs. 26,270/-.

She deposes that Yatin Chodnekar was working in the executive category for accounts payable. She deposes that Maria Ratos-Supervisor, Suema Barreto-Supervisor, Hansika Karekar-Accounts Assistant, Luiza Alvares-Accounts Assistant, Belmira Dias-Accounts Assistant, James Mendonsa & Valerian-Controls Assistant were working under the supervision and control of Yatin Chodnekar.

28. She deposes that as per the records available, Mr. Yatin Chodnekar was promoted to the executive cadre as Junior Accountant, Grade-VI by letter dated 20-05-1989. She deposes that he voluntarily resigned from the Majorda Beach Resort Employees Union because he was promoted in a supervisory and administrative capacity. She deposes that as a Junior Accountant he was to supervise activities of accounts receivables, checking and verifying the accounts, ensuring that the account entries are correctly recorded by the Assistant and others working under him, seeing that the accounts statements are rendered on a timely basis, follow up for collections, exercise control and supervise overnight audit functions. She deposes normal charter of demands settlements were not applicable to him.

29. She deposes that he was promoted as Accounts Executive on 01-04-1996, Asst. Manager-Accounts w.e.f. 09-06-1997 and as Dy. Manager-Accounts on 08-11-2000. She deposes that by Board Resolution dated 07-11-2008 (Exh. 35 D Colly), Mr. Yatin Chodnekar was given powers to sign and operate the bank accounts along with Mr. Krishnan and herself. She deposes that he was authorized to sign petrol slips for filling petrol in the vehicles of Party II. She deposes that Yatin Chodnekar used to sign and sanction leave applications (Exh. 39 D Colly) of the employees working under him. She deposes the he sanctioned leave till his last working day.

30. She deposes that Yatin Chodnekar was also authorised to sign room requisition as department head and sanctioning petty cash disbursement vouchers. She deposes that he was approving mediclaim of the employees.

31. She further deposes that he was enjoying the insurance policy applicable to executive category. She deposes that he could order refreshments free of charge for himself by signing refreshment slips and use executive dining room. She deposes that he had the facility of free stay with family at the establishment at Mumbai. She deposes that he was second in command in the entire Accounts Department of Party II (1). She deposes that he was directly reporting to Chandrakant Sangavar, Vice President and General Manager of Party II(1).

32. Witness 1 of Party I deposed in favour of himself Witness 1 of Party II deposed in favour of Party II (1) and Party II (2).

33. Now let us look into their testimonies in cross-examination and documents to ascertain the truth.

34. Yatin Chodnekar (Witness I for Party I) deposes in cross-examination that after he was promoted as Assistant Manager- Accounts, he was the sole responsible person for the Accounts Department who used to sign cheques and other relevant documents for Party II (1). He admits that he was directly reporting to Chandrakant Sangavar (Deputy General Manager). He admits that from December, 1999, he was controlling the Food and Beverages and the Stores. He admits that he was entitled to executive dining, mediclaim, insurance cover, LTA, uniform reimbursement, conveyance reimbursement, superannuation, ex gratia and ordering refreshment.

35. Mr. Yatin Chodnekar (Witness 1 for Party I) admits in cross-examination that Petrol Requisition Slips for hotel cars were authorized by him. He admits that Stores Requisition were approved by him. He admits that Dy. Accounts Manager is second in command in the Accounts Department. He admits that he left the Union once he became an Accounts Supervisor and thereafter at no point of time joined it. He admits that there is lot of difference in the pay scale of Accounts Assistant to Dy. Accounts Manager. He admits that after his promotion from Accounts Assistant onwards, he was getting the benefits of managerial staff.

36. Mr. Yatin Chodnekar (Witness 1 for Party I) admits that the refreshment slips (Exhibit 37D) were approved by him. He admits the Petrol Slips (Exhibit 38D and 48D Colly) duly approved by him. He admits leave applications of his staff (Exhibit 39D Colly) duly sanctioned by him. He admits Petty Cash Disbursement (Exhibit 40D Colly and Exhibit 44D) duly approved by him. He admits the Purchase Journal Voucher dated 22-01-2016 (Exhibit 41D and 51D Colly) duly verified by him. He admits store room requisitions (Exhibit 43D Colly) approved by him. He admits letter (Exhibit 49D) addressed to Kunde Service Station, Margao stating that he is the authorized signatory to sign the petrol slips. By letter dated 01-01-1988, Yatin Chodnekar was re-designated as Accounts Supervisor. Yatin Chodnekar admits the genuineness of this letter.

37. Exhibit 52D is Board Resolution dated 01-12-1999 authorizing Yatin Codnekar to sign and operate Bank Accounts. By Board Resolution dated 06-02-2001 (Exhibit 53 D), Yatin Chodnekar was authorized to represent Party II (1) in a Suit filed against M/s Nehshaft Systems. By Board Resolution dated 11-08-2001 (Exhibit 54D) Yatin Chodnekar was authorized to operate accounts with the State Bank of India and Saraswat Co-operative Bank, Margao. By letter dated 16-02-1993 (Exhibit 56D), Yatin Chodnekar has asked the Company's Lawyer, Mr. J. E. Coelho Pereira to take action with respect to an outstanding amount from Goa Peuta. Yatin Chodnekar has signed letter dated 01-02-1992 asking Goa Peuta to settle payments. He has also signed an application for Renewal of Registration Certificate (Exhibit 58) under the Shops and Establishment Act.

38. Exh. 66 is the job description of Yatin Chodnekar. It reads as follows:

1. To assist the Chief Accountant in the management of the accounting functions.
2. To assist and check the working of the Wage Accountant.
3. To continually check the accounts payable in order to ensure that no outstanding bills are kept pending.
4. To constantly check and reduce the outstandings and make efforts for speedy collection of bills.
5. To check the working and reports of the Night Auditor and the Income Accountant.
6. To inform the Chief Accountant about possible doubts in accounts.
7. To assist the Chief Accountant in carrying out inventory checks.
8. Responsible for checking the following: Salary and wages bills and statements, Payroll taxes and employees benefits.
9. To deposit all taxes and Provident Fund deductions from employees with the Government.
10. To assist in the preparation of all financial statements, income statements, forecasts and budgets, etc.
11. To deputize for the Chief Accountant in his absence or whenever required to do so.
12. To attend departmental meetings and in the absence of the Chief Accountant to attend the General Manager's meetings.

In addition to the above mentioned duties and job functions, any other assignment given occasionally or on a daily basis by the immediate superior for the Management.

39. The admissions by Yatin Chodnekar in his testimony shows that he was responsible for the Accounts Department when he was promoted as Assistant Manager-Accounts and that at the relevant time he was reporting to Deputy General Manager. From December, 1999, he was controlling the Food and Beverages and the Stores. He admits that he was entitled to executive dining, mediclaim, insurance cover, LTA, conveyance reimbursement, ex-gratia and order refreshments for himself. As Dy. Accounts Manager, he was second in command in the Accounts Department. He left the Union after he became the Accounts Supervisor. He used to sign petrol slips, leave applications, Purchase Journal Vouchers, approve store room requisitions, sign petrol slips, operate bank accounts along with others. He was authorized to represent Party II (1) in a Suit. He was also instructing the Company's advocates to take action against persons defaulting in payment of outstanding amounts. He was also playing a role in settling outstanding amount with the Company. He had also signed an application to renew the registration of establishment.

40. The job description shows that he was to continually check the accounts payable and see that no outstanding bills are kept pending, make efforts for speedy collection of bills, check the working and reports of night auditors and Income Accountants, inform Chief Accountant about possible doubts in accounts, assist the Chief Accountant in carrying out inventory checks, check the salary, wage bill and statements, payroll taxes and employees' benefits, deposit taxes and Provident Fund Deductions, to assist in the preparation of financial statements, income statements, forecasts, budgets etc. to deputize for the Chief Accountant in his absence or wherever required to do so and to attend departmental meetings and in the absence of the Chief Accountant to attend the General Manager's meetings.

41. Exhibit 60-D is a letter dated 13-12-2007. In the said letter, it is stated that the job entrusted to Yatin Chodnekar involves certain "jobs of supervising various functions of controls carried by subordinates". It is stated therein that Yatin Chodnekar had failed in his supervisory functions with respect to a bill.

42. All this shows that Yatin Chodnekar was predominantly discharging supervisory, administrative and managerial functions. His salary is more than Rs. 10,000/-. Therefore he is not a 'workman'.

43. There is no evidence to show that Vincent Miranda is a 'workman'.

44. Therefore, Yatin Chodnekar and Vincent Miranda are not 'workmen'. The other workmen have compromised the case. Hence, I hold issue No. 1 in the negative.

45. Issue No 2: The case of Party I is that the action of Party II in terminating their services w. e. f. 07-06-2016 is illegal and unjustified.

46. As seen above, Jose Francisco Moraes, Mr. Savio Dias, Ms. Candida D'costa and Ms. Diana Almeida have settled this case with their Employer. This case has been contested only by Yatin Chodnekar and Vincent Miranda. It has been proved that they are not workmen. Therefore, the termination of their services w. e. f. 07-06-2016 cannot be held illegal and unjustified under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. Hence, I hold issue No. 2 in the negative.

47. The Union Representative, Shri P. Gaonkar has relied upon the following case-laws to show that Yatin Chodnekar is workman:-

1. Sanjeev Kumar Gupta v/s Presiding Officer, Labour Court (II) Faridabad & Anr. 2001 (I) L.L.N. 447 wherein the Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court has held that an accounts executive could be the workman under Section 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.
2. Management of Christian Medical College and Hospital, Vellore v/s Presiding Officer, Labour Court, Vellore & Anr. 2003 (2) L. L. N 21 wherein it was held by the Hon'ble Madras High Court that an account officer could be a workman under Section 2 (s) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.
3. Gwalior Investment Co. Pvt. Ltd. v/s K. M. Dessai, & Ors. 1993 (I) LLJ 127 wherein the Bombay High Court clearly held that the few extras duties cannot determine the status of the employee and the focus is on predominant nature of duties.
4. Bhatiya General Hospital & Anr. V. Hanmant Anandrao Raje & Ors. Writ Petition No. 11048/2022 wherein the Hon'ble Bombay High Court has held that the overall consideration should be the duties performed by the workmen.

5. Damodar Mangeshkar V/s Cidade De Goa 2021(6) Mh.L.J.677 wherein accounts supervisor was held to be a workman by the Hon'ble High Court of Bombay at Goa as the management failed to prove that his main duties were managerial, administrative and supervisory.

48. A reading of these judgments show that it is not the designation but the duties done by the employee which determines whether a person is a 'workman' or not.

49. For the reasons stated above, it is seen that Yatin Chodnekar was working predominantly in a supervisory, administrative and managerial capacity. There is no evidence to show that he was working predominantly as a clerk. He was the Dy. Manager-Accounts and second in command in the Accounts Department. Hence, the above mentioned case-laws do not apply to this case.

50. The Union Representative, Shri P. Gaonkar has relied upon the laws laid down in Deepali Gundu Surwase Versus Kranti Junior Adhyapaka Mahavidyalaya & Ors (2013(10) SCC 324). It deals with, when and how back wages should be granted.

51. Since Yatin Chodnekar and Vincent Miranda are not workmen, this Tribunal has no jurisdiction to grant back wages. The said case-law is irrelevant.

Hence, I pass the following:-

ORDER

- (i) The claims of Yatin Chodnekar and Vincent Miranda are rejected.
- (ii) No orders as to costs.
- (iii) Inform the Government accordingly.
